

TBB Productions

Tracey Erin Smith is an award winning performer, writer, teacher and spiritual comedienne who believes in crazy-wisdom and practices reverent irreverence.

Tracey is the founder and creator of Soul-O-Theatre®, a program designed to help actors and non-actors create their own one-person shows by transforming raw material from their life-journeys into creative solo performances. Actors and writers in Tracey's classes have gone on to perform their shows professionally across Canada and in New York City.

Soul-O-Theatre® has been adapted and taught by Tracey in a variety of healing settings such as WellSpring, a centre for people living with cancer and it is the first program of its kind to be taught in Seniors in Community Living Facilities. Tracey is so passionate about the positive effect of Soul-O-Theatre® that she will bring it to your community regardless of where it is located in the world.

As a playwright and actor, Tracey has performed her hit one-woman show The Burning Bush! in New York City (Off Broadway), Toronto, Vancouver, Edmonton and Halifax. The play was selected as 'Best of the Toronto Fringe Festival' and won an 'Audience Choice Award' in New York City's Frigid Festival.

Tracey is a popular instructor at Ryerson University's ACT II STUDIO and has taught improvisation and Solo Show creation at Toronto's famous The Second City. Tracey has been a guest expert on Breakfast Television (CITY TV) and Matchmaker (The Life Network). She is also a frequent Artist-in-Residence at creative and spiritual retreats in Canada and the U.S. Tracey was the co-host of Jobs 1,2,3! (Rogers TV) as well as the creator of a pilot for a series about creativity called CRE8-TV (produced by Coptor Productions, the co-producers of Ryan, the Academy Award© winning animated short). As a singer, Tracey performs on a music CD for children called NAME YOUR TUNE! and was nominated for a Jessie Richardson Award (Vancouver's Tony's) for her performance in the world premiere of The One That Got Away at Vancouver's Chutzpah! Festival. She is the author of Soul-O-Theatre: Putting Your Life Story on Stage.
